capacity building workshop in the framework of IYNF Networking programme

3-8 November 2009, Dresden, Germany

The International Young Naturefriends (IYNF) launches a third edition of its popular InTouch. The workshop is prepared for everyone who is interested in the practical way of organising international youth exchanges and camps. It will bring a special value to youth leaders from local groups who think of organising an international youth exchange, or those who want to share their experience about it. If you are looking forward to meet new people from all over Europe and find potential partners, or you are just motivated to get involved in the international youth work, then InTouch is the right place for you. It is a short, practical focused activity, based on non-formal and experiential education, with the aim to connect and inspire for international cooperation. We expect 20 participants from Austria, Czech Republic, Germany, Hungary, Slovakia, Romania and Poland (participation from other EU countries is possible too). The age of participants is between 18 and 30 years, with exceptions possible on both sides. Participants need to be able to understand and speak English. IYNF covers 70 % of the travel costs. Deadline for registrations is 28 September. Early birds registering before 3 September will get a discount of 10 EUR.

Registration form is online at the IYNF website: www.iynf.org/intouch

Registration fees: Western Europe (WE) 56 EUR, WE students 50 EUR, Central Europe (CE) 33 EUR, CE students 30 EUR, Eastern Europe (EE) 22 EUR, EE students 20 EUR. Members of Naturefriends' movement have a further 20% discount to the stated registration fees.
