

THE CORE GROUP OF IYNF E-EXPERTS

Expected involvement:

- To actively participate on all 3 international activities of IYNF in 2016 (2-7 May in Belgium, 1-7 August in Czech Republic and 18-23 October in FYROM)
- To support the creation of the workshop on safe and efficient e-activism during the 2nd activity, to create an e-manual how to repeat the workshop and to lead the workshop for their peers during the 3rd activity
- To support the creation of the IYNF e-volunteering policy during the 3rd activity and to finalize the document until two months after the activity
- To promote the outcomes of the activities and motivate their peers to use the IYNF e-participation tools
- To be in frequent touch with the IYNF prep teams and IYNF Secretariat and actively participate in preparation of the international activities via social media, webinars or other online tools
- To actively propose project ideas and to become part of the future project teams

Additional tasks that will be encouraged and welcomed:

- To spread the outcomes of the IYNF e-participation projects on the international, national or local level via articles in various magazines, blogging or vlogging
- To organize workshop on e-activism on the national or local level
- To lead online discussions with the participants on various e-participation related topics (in order to support the preparation of the future participants, creation of statistics or informing their peers about recent developments)
- To make a research and write articles on the e-participation related matters and publish them under the IYNF Breakdown webpage section
- To manage a Facebook group that will gather all participants of the IYNF e-participation international activities together with the IYNF Secretariat members
- To propose and lead task forces in case a need for them arises

Benefits to the members of the core group:

- Opportunity to develop own organizational and management skills, gain new knowledge and gain international experience in a field of own interest
- Mentorship and support from IYNF experts
- Chance to engage in a big international network, make new contacts and actively influence the direction of the future IYNF actions
- Full reimbursement of travel and participation related costs and material support from IYNF
- Chance to become IYNF representatives in various international youth conferences and youth projects